From organic production, this Gewurz has a wonderful mix of florality, spice freshness and depth.

£54

Christian Moreau et Fils Chablis 2009

France · Burgundy · 12.5%

Chardonnay

Delicious, full, zesty and mineral rich. Christian and his son mainly produce Grand Cru wines and their village Chablis is a big step up on the rest.

£55

Man O' War Pinot Gris 2009

New Zealand · Auckland · 13.5%

Pinot Gris

Full-bodied, with creamy almonds, light spice, and a very giving, rounded style.

£68

Château de la Saule Montagny 1er Cru 2008

France · Burgundy · 13%

Chardonnay

Unoaked white Burgundy is unusual at this level and it works well here.

Tangy lemon, fine acidity, and overall a lively, youthful feel.

£76

Schloss Gobelsburg Gaisberg Riesling 2009

Austria · Kamptal · 13%

Riesling

Exceptionally well-balanced, showing abundant fresh lime and floral aromas.

A hint of exotic golden richness follows on the palate.

£125

Ballot-Millot Meursault Les Narvaux 2008

France · Burgundy · 13.5%

Chardonnay

Classic Meursault, rich yet delicate. The fruit and oak are in harmony and the acidity frames this beautifully.

Montepulciano, other Abruzzo grape varieties

A rich, round style. Plenty of fruit and appealing earthy hints.

£30

Château La Bastide Vieilles Vignes Corbières 2008

France · South-West · 13%

Syrah, Grenache

Medium-bodied southern French old vines red. Ripe fruit and light tannin, with dark red and blue fruit.

£34

Quinta da Lagoalva 2009

Portugal · Tejo · 13.5%

Touriga Nacional, Castelão

A fantastic example of the quality Portugal produces. Dark plum and purple berries leap out of the glass.

£34

Jip Jip Rocks Padthaway Shiraz 2008

Australia · South Australia · 14.5%

Shiraz

Impressive concentration without over ripeness. Eucalypt and very dark fruits mingle in satisfying harmony.

£36

Pavia Barbera d'Asti Casareggio 2009

A fine, aromatic, subtly rich Pinot from Drouhin's Oregon outpost.

A brilliant example of cool climate USA winemaking.

CHAMPAGNE

BLANC

£50

Taittinger Brut Reserve NV

Fine, fresh and fruity. This blend comes exclusively from the first pressing.

£75

Bollinger Brut NV

Mouthfilling, concentrated and luminous. Rich biscuit tones and fine citrus.

£95

Henri Giraud Ay Grand Cru NV

Rich, meaty Powerful Champagne; lots of Pinot Noir in the blend.

If you like Bollinger try this!

£110

Gosset Grande Reserve NV

Winner of huge awards in France. The house style veers towards classic brioche elegance, but the Grande Reserve combines this with extra depth to stunning effect.

£150

Taittinger Comtes de Champagne 1998

The bouquet is intense, expressive, and particularly complex. It opens with floral aromas, hawthorn, and beeswax, with subtle notes of lime and pineapple.

£250

Louis Roederer Cristal 2002

Champagne at its finest, as inspired with this vintage as always. The embodiment of elegance and purity.

ROSÉ

£60

Taittinger Brut Prestige Rosé NV

The bouquet is satisfyingly intense, both fresh and youthful, with aromas of freshly crushed raspberry, cherry, and notes of rose petal.

£130

Gosset Grand Rosé NV

Very pale and elegant rosé Champagne with fine, creamy red berry fruit.

£180

Taittinger Comtes de Rosé Millésime 2000

A sublime, pale rose colour. Rich, lifted fruit and very fine bubbles.

COCKTAILS

Bucks Fizz with Champagne £ 11.50

With Taittinger Champagne & Fresh Orange Juice

Kir Royale £ 11.50

Crème De Cassis, Taittinger Champagne, Garnished with a Blackberry

Champagne Cocktail £ 13.95

Combination of Remy Martin, Angostura Bitter, Brown Sugar & Topped up by Taittinger. It first originated in 1899, from the winner of a New York Cocktail competition.

Martini £ 12.95

Composition of Grey Goose or Bombay Gin & Martini Extra Dry with Green Olives. The true origin of the Martini is draped in mystery! There are differing arguments as to who was the first to create the martini.

Peach Bellini £ 13.95

Taittinger Champagne mixed with White Peach Puree

Strawberry Daiquiri £ 13.75

Bacardi Rum, Strawberry Liqueur with Lime juice & Brown Sugar.

Pimms with Lemonade (Jugs) £ 30.00

Rewind back to a London oyster bar in the 1840s where owner James Pimms invented the thirst-quencher. Using gin, quinine and a secret mixture of herbs, good old Pimm served up the brew as an aid to digestion, dishing it out in a small tankard and the No. 1 Cup moniker was born.

Long Island Iced Tea £ 13.75

One of the strongest Cocktails containing Absolut Vodka, Tanqueray Gin, Bacardi, Tequila Gold, Cointreau, Lime Juice & Coke. It was first served in the late 1970s by Robert Butt, a bartender at the oak beach Inn in New York.

French 75 £ 13.75

Is a Cocktail made from Bombay Gin, Champagne, Lemon Juice, and Sugar. There is some controversy over whether the Cocktail was originally made with gin or with cognac and champagne. If Vodka is substituted for the Gin it may be referred to as a French 76.

Margarita £ 13.75

Mix of Tequila, Cointreau, Lime Juice & Brown Sugar, served with Crushed ice. The history of the Margarita is unfortunately fairly cloudy. One of the more popular stories has it being invented in 1948 by Margarita for a large party she was holding down in Acapulco.

Cosmopolitan £ 13.75

The recipe is based on Vodka Citron mixed with Cointreau, Cranberry Juice & Lime juice with flamed Orange Peel. The drink was created independently by different bartenders since the 1970s. It is generally recognised that John Caine brought the drink to San Francisco around 1987.

Mojito £ 13.75

Bacardi, muddled Lime, Mint Leaves & Brown Sugar topped with Soda Water & Dash of Angostura Bitter.

Non Alcoholic fruit Punch (Jugs) £ 12.00
